

Presidents Message

I want to thank the districts for having wonderful spring meetings. They have all been well attended and enjoyed by everyone. I have attended as many district meetings and Lincoln dinners as possible and I have enjoyed being with everyone. It is rewarding to see all the clubs working together to support our organization, Republican issues and candidates.

It hard to believe we are only 31 days away from the MoFRW State Convention. The 6th District is busy putting the last details together so we can have a great convention. The Friday night Millennium/Century Club event will feature Lizzie Lou as she entertains us with her comedy and country music.

We have outstanding guest speakers and many candidates will be attending. Our guest speakers include: Veteran Keara Torkelson wounded in the 2009 Fort Hood shooting, Emily Russell Executive Director of Human Trafficking from the office of MO Attorney General, Russ Tuttle Managing Director of Stop Trafficking Project an expert of social media sex trafficking, Lieutenant Matthew Palmer and Sergeant Ryan Stiffler will discuss active shooter situations. So much information you will want to bring a note pad! The Saturday evening banquet will feature Rob Carson Missouri's 'Music Man' of Political Satire.

Don't forget to mail your registrations, delegate forms and join the Millennium and Century Club. Please remember to bring your "Caring for America" (Just for You) bags. I am asking each person to bring one or two children's book in Memory of Former First Lady Barbara Bush for our 2018-2019 Literacy Program.

Our Chaplain Kristi Nichols will conduct our Sunday morning Memorial Service. Be sure to email Kristi the name and some information about a member that has passed away during this year.

May 28th is Memorial Day, a day of remembrance of American soldiers who have died in military service. Take time and think about the soldiers and those they left behind.
